CAMP FRIENDS

I made lots of friends at camp this year,
And when we say "Good-bye" I'll shed a tear.
We had lots of good times together,
Through fights and fun and stormy weather.
Even when we were down and out
And the counselors started to scream and shout,
One of you was always near
To lift our spirits with friendly care.
The last day of camp I've dreaded from the start,
Because it's the time we all have to part.
We'll keep in touch throughout the seasons,
All writing back for different reasons.
I must leave now, but before I go,
My friendship to you I must somehow show.
I thank each of you for the fun we've had,
Being good and being bad.
I hope I'll see you at camp next year,
But as I go I shed a tear.
Good-bye, my friends.

Michele LaFonte

All at once there were many . . .
girls were all around.
We counselors had to have patience
for three weeks long we were bound.
Good time were in everything done
globbing, swimming, archery, to mention some of the fun.
a few injuries kept us counselors
on our toes,
But over all, the good times were more frequent than the woes.
You should've seen the cabin
at the end of the day,
Did a tornado hit along the way?

Three weeks came to an end
I didn't expect it to be sad,
But the people here at camp made it hard to leave and feel glad.
This experience I will never forget — the love, the fun, and the memories what a set.
I thank God for the kids,
the small ones and the tall,
For they make Camp Champions
the Best of them all.

Shelley Davenport

Thank you for all of the memories. As we all think back to the first day of camp, we remember our feelings. Some of us new campers were anxiously but fearfully waiting for all that was to come. Some of us old campers were anticipating the renewal of old friendships, but welcoming new faces with that special "Camp Champions Smile." But, we all had one feeling in common — joy. Joy from the instant warmth felt around us given by the welcoming hugs and friendly smiles. Joy felt from the instant that we learned everyone's names and realized that whether first or sixth year campers, we all have the same feelings.

Then, that first day you felt like such a part of everything. You didn't know exactly why everyone fits in at Camp Champions. Maybe it's because of the glowing love, open hearts, and that special feeling that only Camp Champions can give.

Of course, Camp Champions wasn't made just for having fun. It's a place for us to grow within ourselves. So, while at camp these three weeks, not only did we discover a part of ourselves which only a special thing like Camp Champions could uncover. We discovered that inside each of us there is an athlete, a winner, a loser, and a good sport. But most of all, we all have a lot of love to give. Thanks for the memories.

Sherry Meeks
